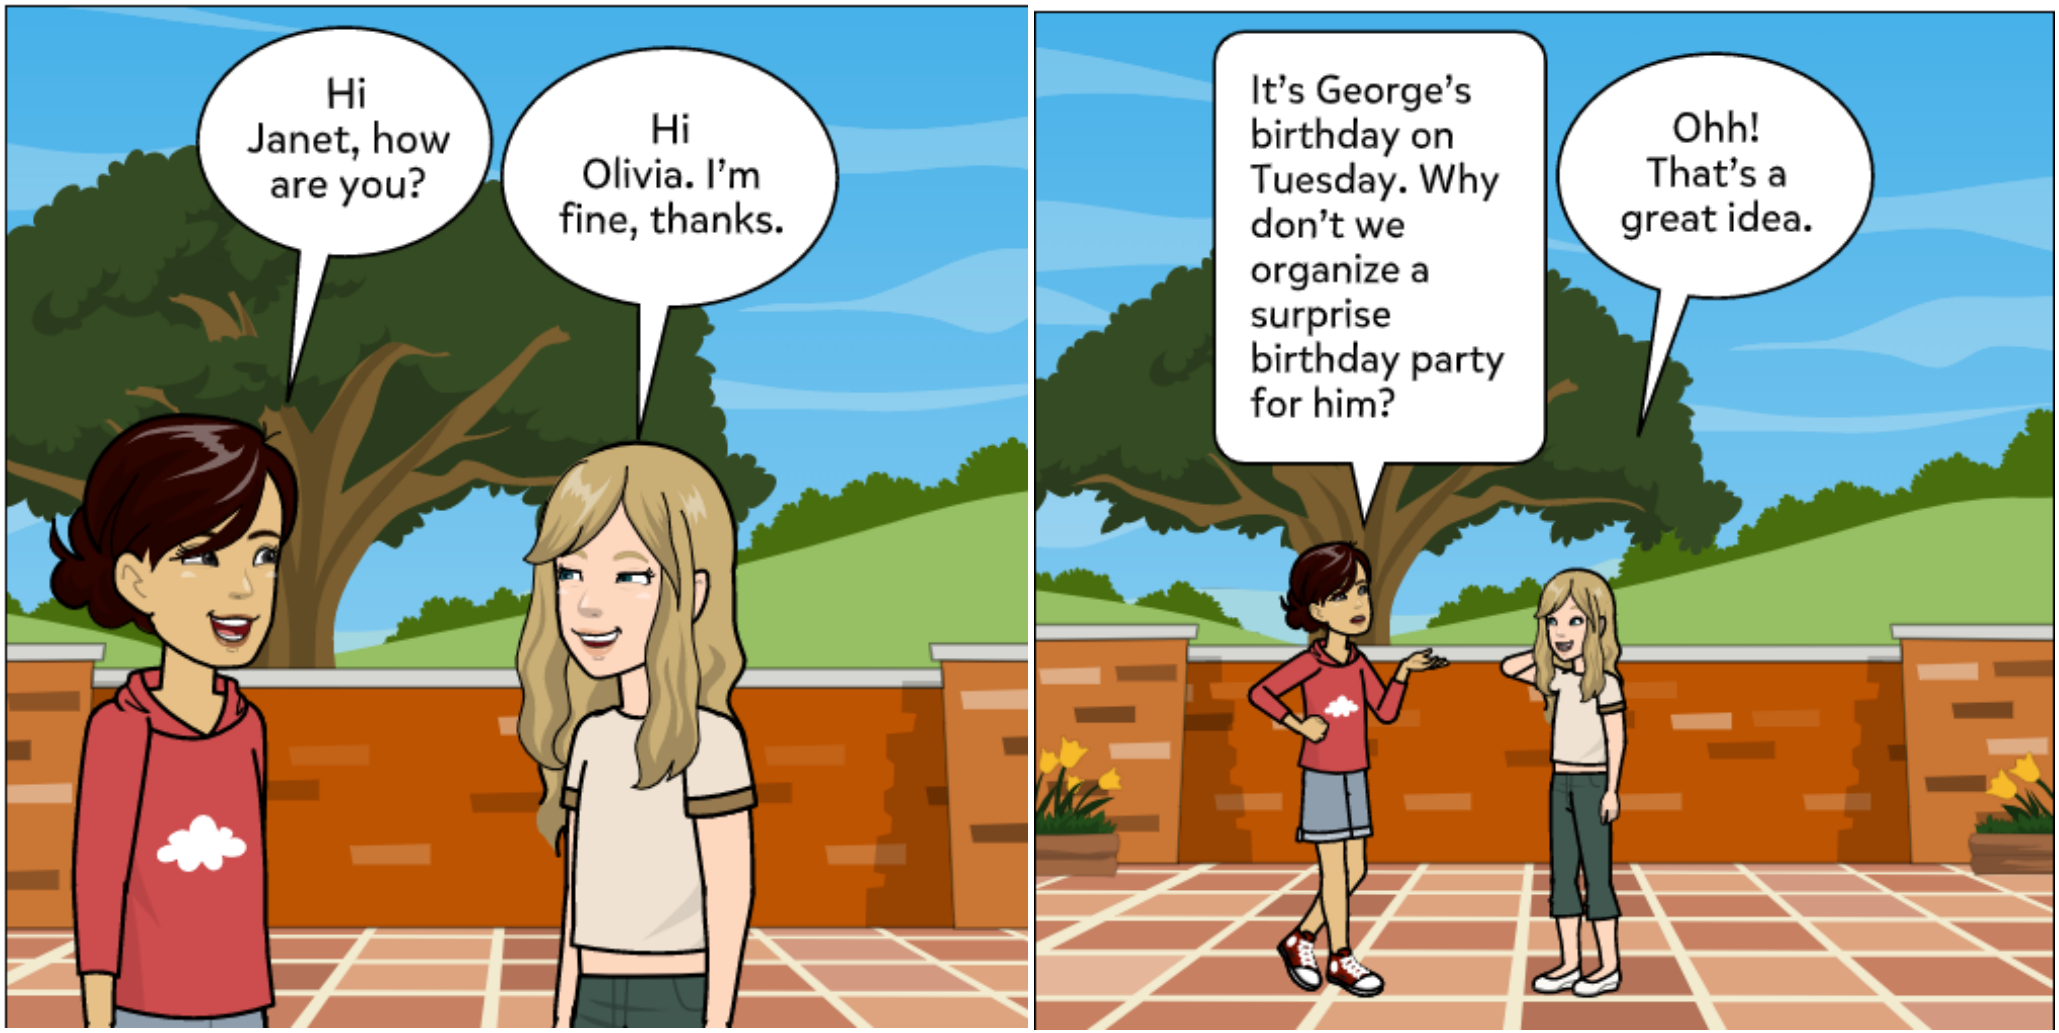
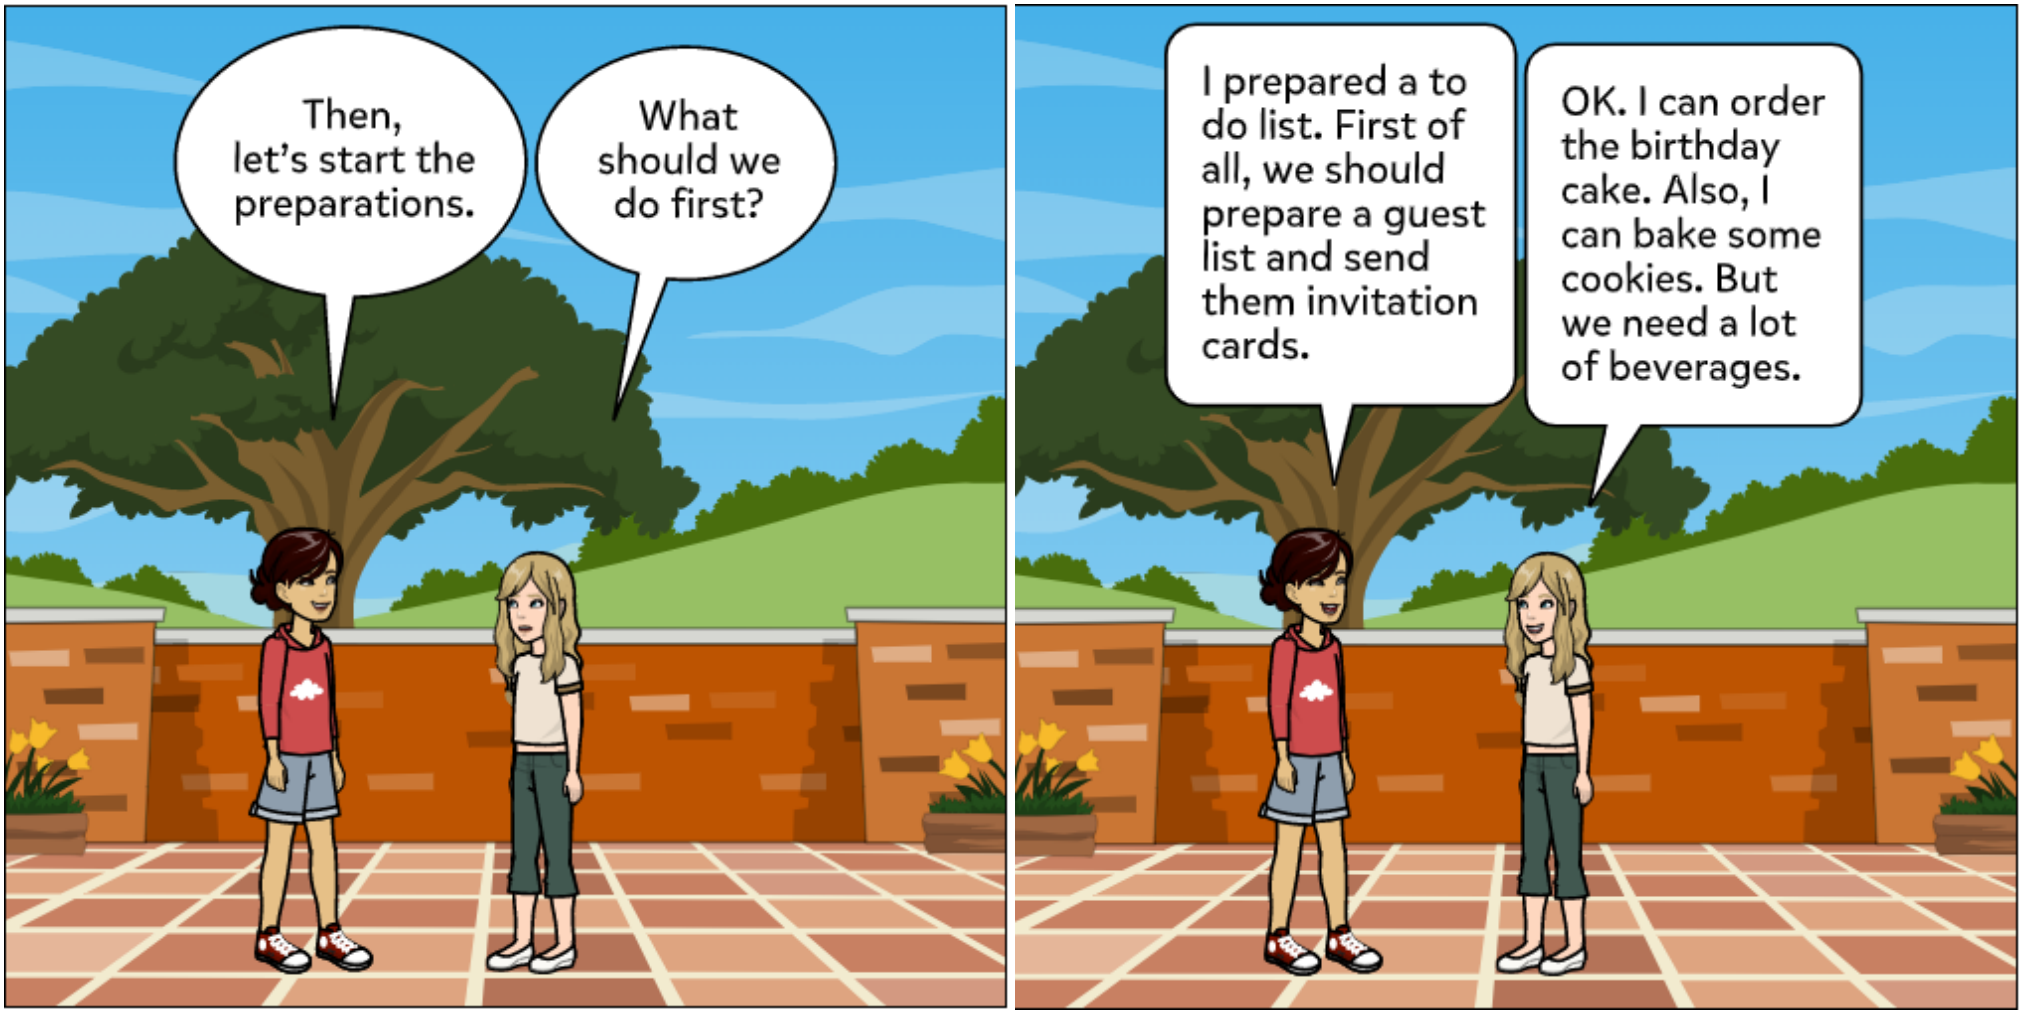
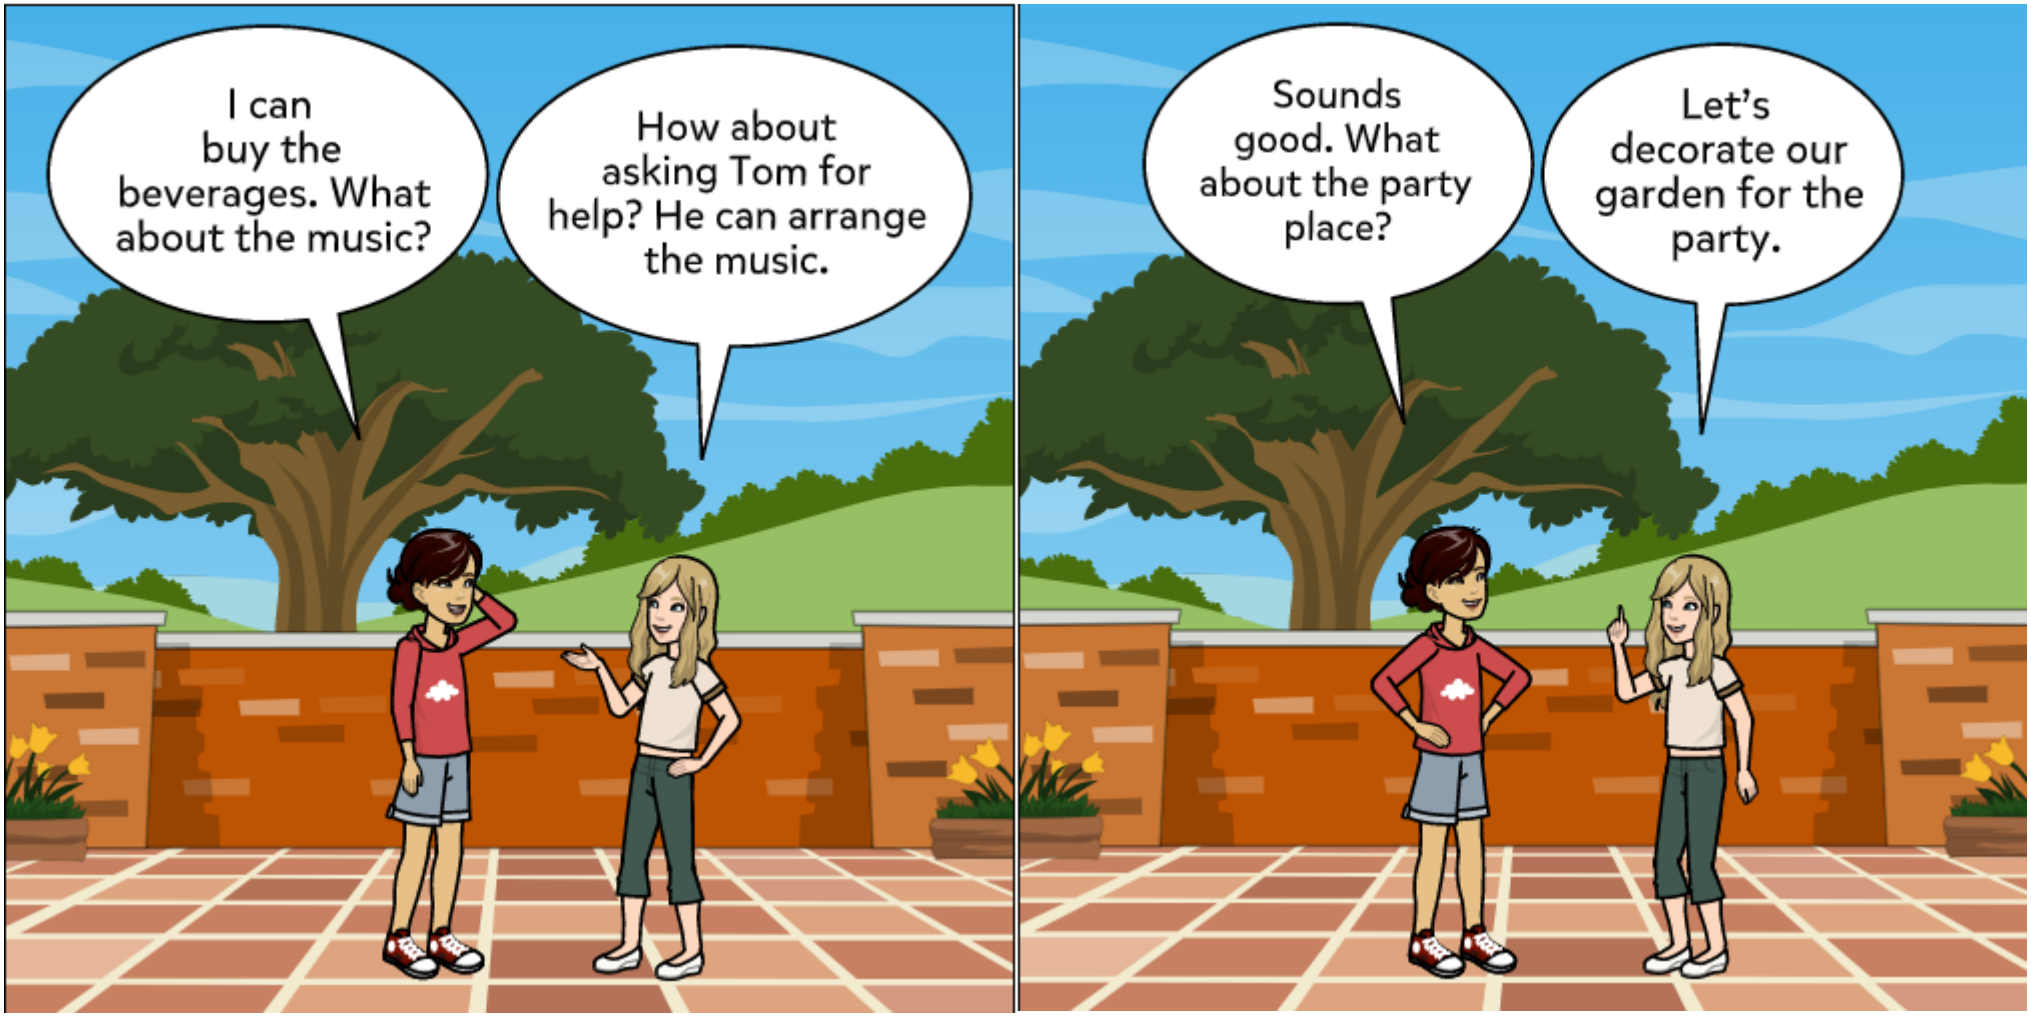
A SURPRISE PARTY

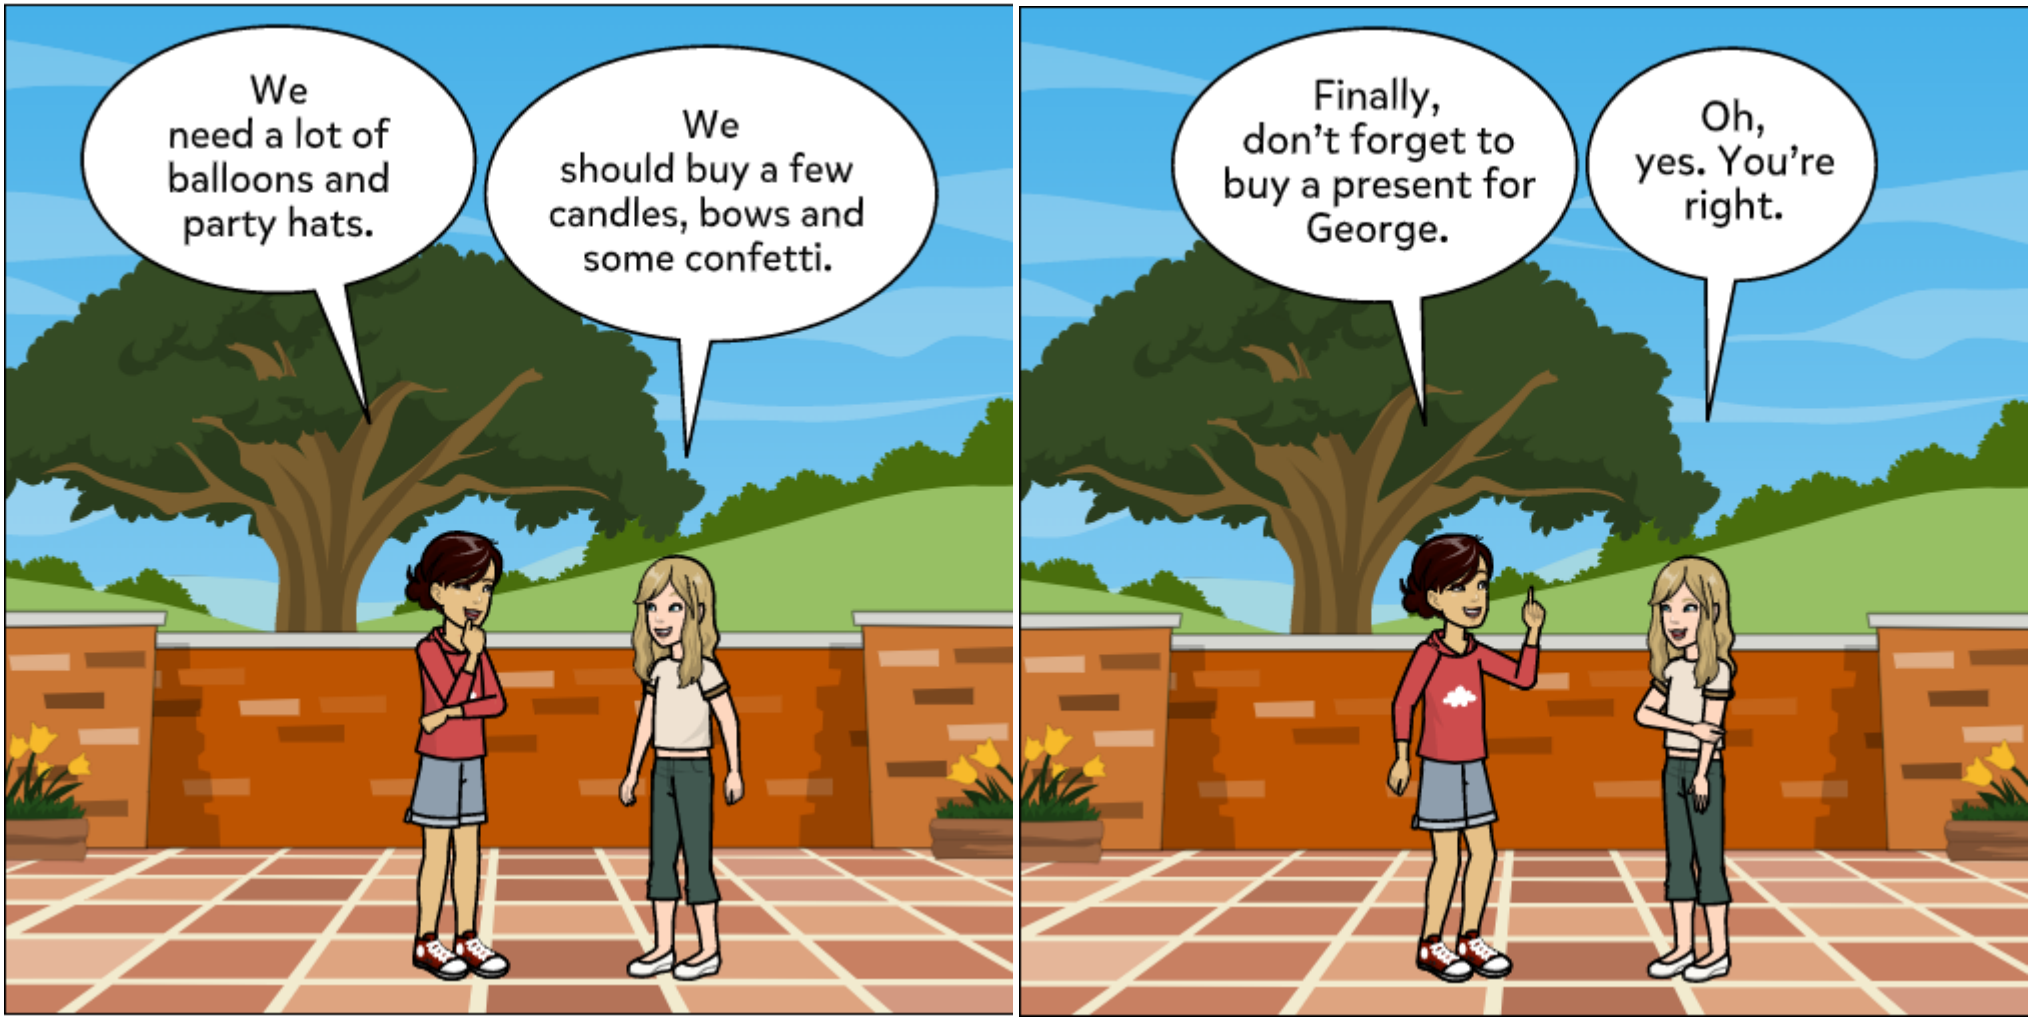




Then, let's start the preparations.
What should we do first?
I prepared a to do list. First of all, we should prepare a guest list and send them invitation cards.
OK. I can order the birthday cake. Also, I can bake some cookies. But we need a lot of beverages.



I can buy the beverages. What about the music?
How about asking Tom for help? He can arrange the music.
Sounds good. What about the party place?
Let's decorate our garden for the party.



We need a lot of balloons and party hats.
We should buy a few candles, bows and some confetti.
Finally, don't forget to buy a present for George.
Oh, yes. You're right.

Everything is OK for now. Would you like to drink a cup of coffee?
Sure. Let's have a rest.
