

It was amazing. We went to the amusement park to have some fun. I and my brother rode bumper cars. My dad and I got on the roller coaster. It was exciting.

Woow, that's great.
What about you John?

I was ill at the weekend. I went to the hospital to see a doctor. Then, I went to the chemist's to buy medicine.

Poor you.. I'm sorry to hear that.

I spent time with my friends on Sunday. We went to the art gallery to an exhibition. After that, we went to a cafe to eat and drink something.

How was the exhibition, Clara?

It was impressive. I loved the new paintings.

Where were you at the weekend, Wendy?

My mum and I went to the shopping mall to buy some new clothes. I bought two dresses and a pair of shoes. They were on sale.

I was at the shopping mall on Saturday, too. I went to the music store to buy some CDs.

How nice. I was at my hometown to visit my parents. And now, Let's open your books, please :)
